

Coaching in Early Intervention is an approach designed to cross-train and empower families and caregivers to use teaching strategies intentionally while engaging in everyday routines. The FCBDD is a provider of early intervention services to children in Franklin County who are Part C eligible and their families. These services are provided in the home and other natural where the child may receive care. This provider is a member of a team that works together to serve the family. The team represents several licensed professional who specialize in development of motor, communication, feeding and other behavior skill development.